Joaquín Rodrigo (Spanish Edition) Carlos Laredo

Joaquín Rodrigo (1901-1999) es, probablemente, el compositor español más importante del siglo veinte y, sin lugar a dudas, el más escuchado de todos los tiempos. Su extensa obra abarca prácticamente todos los géneros de la música clásica, desde la simple canción hasta el poema sinfónico, pasando por conciertos para orquesta y diversos instrumentos solistas: piano, guitarra (una, dos y cuatro), violín, violonchelo, flauta y arpa. Solicitado por los mejores directores de orquesta, famosos solistas y grandes editores, Joaquín Rodrigo compuso una música moderna, original, hondamente española y respetuosa con los cánones clásicos. Su obra lleva una marca personal inconfundible y alcanza la cumbre con el famosísimo Concierto de Aranjuez. Rodrigo se quedó ciego a los tres años de edad, pero eso no le impidió vivir una vida apasionante, tratar a personajes extraordinarios, viajar por todo el mundo y participar en acontecimientos históricos excepcionales, de la mano de Victoria Kamhi, su mujer. Esta obra, rigurosamente documentada, rompe las reglas de la ortodoxia en materia de biografías y está escrita como una novela, que mantiene al lector en vilo de principio a fin.
