Putting his life and sanity on the line—for a man beyond his reach.

Bay City Paranormal Investigations, Book 1

Sam Raintree's

experience with things he can't explain isn't the only reason his new job as a paranormal investigator is a perfect fit. His coworkers, preoccupied with things outside the norm, will never notice he's gay.

Once he settles into his first investigation at Oleander House, his gay-by-stealth theory goes out the window. Not only is his unexpected attraction to group leader Dr. Bo Broussard painfully obvious, he can't hide his increasingly erotic and frightening dreams stimulated by the house's violent history.

Though Bo

conceals his sexuality behind a wedding ring, mutual attraction shrinks the wary distance between them until the sparks ignite an electrifying encounter. Next morning, Bo's back in the closet and blaming his "lapse" on the house's unusual effect on Sam's latent psychokinetic ability.

In other words, a poltergeist made him do it.

Sam's outrage feeds a determination to prove Bo wrong—until the heat of conflict opens a door to the house's murderous past, unleashing a torrent of bloodshed and life-changing revelation.

Warning:

Warning:

This title contains explicit male/male dream-sex, cross-dimensional electromagnetic theories (mmm, that's hot!), intense violence, and language graphic enough to wake the dead.
