Amor de ciudad grande (Vida y Pensamiento de Mexico) (Spanish Edition) Vicente Quirarte

Amor de ciudad grande es un recorrido por la Ciudad de México a través del tiempo y de la gente que la ha habitado, visitado o escrito sobre ella, desde sus comienzos como refugio de españoles hasta su transformación en una de las ciudades más grandes del mundo. Vicente Quirarte ofrece con este libro un retrato de la ciudad, representada como un personaje que cobra vida gracias a la constante actividad y renovación de sus habitantes. Un paseo por sus calles, edificios y monumentos deja entrever al observador una parte de la esencia de la ciudad, a momentos caótica pero siempre enigmática, lo que hace aún más difícil la tarea de discernir entre el amor y el odio que puede suscitar una ciudad como el Distrito Federal. Desde la mirada de consagrados escritores, tanto mexicanos como extranjeros, que van desde Cervantes hasta Elena Poniatowska, Quirarte logra reconstruir la identidad de una ciudad que está en constante movimiento, y que sin embargo no tiene un rumbo definido
