The Wondrous Cross: Four sermons on the theme 'When I survey the wondrous cross' Iain D Campbell

Every believer knows that the cross is of great importance, but in the busyness of life and pressing in of so many other issues it can somehow lose its significance. In four chapters Iain D. Campbell takes us back to the cross, using the words of 'When I Survey the Wondrous Cross' as a guide. Salvation, assurance, the righteousness of God and justification are all presented; the great love of God demonstrated in the suffering of the Lord Jesus Christ and our necessary response are made clear. It will not take long to read this little book, but the refreshing view of the Saviour and his work it offers will be a rich blessing to all.
