Suburban Stew: A Blood Soaked Satire Irving Schwartz

A gripping novel dripping with wit, mockery, and well-manicured lawns, Suburban Stew: A Blood Soaked Satire tells the story of an out of control family whose secrets and killing sprees are only the beginnings of their troubles.

Throughout an idealistic white-picket-fence landscape, the Kramer family finds inventive and shadowy ways to deceive each other and everyone else. But as they engage in murder and body disposal they eventually come to realize their dependence on the very ones they worked so hard to keep in the dark. As the corpses pile up, the Kramers band together to tackle their surprising problems, and leave you smiling and shaking your head the entire time.
