Starting Out With Jesus: An Introduction to the Son of God Dr. Curtis Barbarick

An introduction to Jesus for those who may know little or nothing about the founder of the world's largest religion. This book was originally designed for university students, but it is certainly accessible to all who have an interest in understanding the life and ministry of the Son of God. The book deals with the identity of Jesus, the essence of his teachings, the miracles he performed and the people who followed him.
