Warp Zone #1 IV, Ted Lange

This book is specially designed in Amazon's fixed-layout KF8 format with region magnification. Double-tap on an area of text to zoom and read. What do you do when you want to travel the cosmos but don't have a spaceship? It's easy. You just use a Warp Zone! What's a Warp Zone? That's even easier. It's a system of tunnels, passageways, and corridors built into the fabric of space-time. How do you find Warp Zones? Well, that's the tricky part. They're tough to identify and even tougher to navigate. Only one man has these hyper-dimensional gateways (mostly) committed to memory. Jack Elsewhere. So, if you're looking to leave the planet and you can't spend six figures on a luxury intergalactic pleasure cruise, talk to Jack. He'll hook you up. What are you waiting for? Sit back and soak it in as Jack and his friends take you on an afrofuturist odyssey beyond the boundaries of the Megaverse! WARP ZONE!
