A Child's Gettysburg T Michael Harty

Travel the Gettysburg Battlefield through the eyes and ears of the authors' children. Twelve points of interest along the way show inquisitive children what can be experienced at these historic places 150 years after the battle. Photographs and historical descriptions appropriate for children include specific places on the battlefield and in the town of Gettysburg. An easy to read map accompanies the glossary at the end of the book. The battlefield is presented as a healing place of peace.
