"COLOURS" a nonsense (2nd edition/Art Book)

WARNING:For the rebels, the provocateurs, the playful ones, the curious, the loonies, the adventurers, and the artist within.

WHAT IS IT?: "Colours" is a playful manifesto for out of the box thinkers and anyone curious enough to peek outside of it.

TELL ME MORE!: "Colours" is a play, an art book, a literary curiosity and an audio epic all in one. The book immerses the reader into the odyssey of a fool who has created fictitious characters to remedy the lunacy embattled within. Each page is carefully crafted through design and typography to bring the text to life. The literary curiosity lays in the intricate and surprising play of language, sometimes invented, sometimes surreal, sometimes utterly blunt. "Colours" is a testament to the author's out of the box thinking: bridging ideas, absurdity and philosophy, while fusing words, design, and audio together in a judiciously dynamic way. It is surely an experience Samuel Beckett, Dr. Seuss and Albert Camus might have enjoyed debating over microchip cookies and rambutan tea. This book is one of a kind. Enjoy the nonsense!

CAUTION: Read and Hear Outside the Box.
