Commons of the Divine Liturgies: Service Book of the Old Catholic Church (Old Catholic Studies)

This book is a wealth of information. The liturgies are presented not only with words, but with extensive rubrics and commentary, prescribing not only what should be said, but what must be done and how it should be done. Brief historical notes can lead one to further research; a more extensive bibliography and annotation would be welcome for the liturgical scholar. The selection of liturgical models is a good one, pulling things in from East and West, honouring the main streams of liturgical practice.
