401 Great Letters Kim Komando

Letter writing--a mundane task that consumes a substantial amount of secretaries' and executives' energy and time--is a perfect place to beat the clock. Kim Komando's letters transcend any previously published book of this nature by providing fill-in-the-blank templates for over 400 real-life, real-issues letters. The software, available with the book, saves even more time by putting every letter into the user's computer. Includes letters on everything from bartering to AIDS and sexual harassment policies, complaints to deal makers, and legal issues to even love letters.
