Cultures of Memory: Memory Culture, Memory Crisis and the Age of Amnesia (Hardback) - Common By (author) Marty Roth

There is no work in English that covers the field historically and across disciplines as this one does. It gives researchers in many disciplines the full picture of the range of memory studies and once more shows us the critical value of having a memory culture that is an essential construct of civilization and literary and historical culture. This study focuses on several centers, among them the ...
