Saving Susie: An Elder Abuse Horror Story Nancy Richmond

As darkness falls across America every evening, the warm welcoming glow from our windows beckons us home, eliciting feelings of family and love, safety and security. But for two million victims of elder abuse in this country, that facade covers a terrible secret life of fear, torment and pain. One of those victims was Susie George, who suffered horrible abuse at the hands of her closest family members. She was terrorized, robbed, drugged, institutionalized and arrested during her ordeal. This book is an eye opening expose of Elder Abuse in America today.
