Before you sign a contract, be sure to read it. Adam Liberte, a single father from Alabama, brings his daughter to Little Rock, Arkansas for the summer so she can stay with her grandmother. In need of income, Adam decides to sign up for a drug trial at a new medical testing facility. Lying in bed while nurses administer drugs to him for three months should be an easy job, right? But Adam soon finds out that even doctors aren't always out to save the lives of their patients.
