Mirrorless interchangeable lens cameras are taking the market by storm! Smaller and lighter than dSLRs, these cameras use more compact lenses and accessories, and can be easily adapted to use optics and gear originally designed for conventional dSLR cameras--so you can downsize your kit and continue using much of your favorite equipment. Many mirrorless ILC models are also loaded with popular features like built-in GPS, Wi-Fi, touch screens, high-speed shooting, and other innovations.
