La Creacion Recuperada: Bases Biblicas Para Una Cosmovision Reformacional Alberto M. Wolters

Este libro es un intento de articular el contenido de una cosmovisión bíblica y su significado para nuestras vidas a medida que buscamos ser obedientes a las Escrituras. Las ideas que componen esta cosmovisión provienen de una larga tradición de reflexión cristiana sobre las Escrituras y sobre una perspectiva global acerca del mundo. Son parte de una tradición arraigada en las Escrituras mismas. Ha tenido como sus representantes más prominentes a los padres de la iglesia Ireneo y Agustín, y a los reformadores Tyndale y Calvino. A esta cosmovisión de formación escritural se le conoce a veces como "reformacional" porque alude a la Reforma protestante, la que descubrió con frescura la enseñanza bíblica concerniente a la profundidad y al alcance del pecado y de la redención. El deseo de vivir sólo por medio de la Escritura, en vez de hacerlo colocándola al lado de la tradición, es el sello de los reformadores. Seguimos sus pasos al hacer este énfasis y al desear una continua reforma, al desear ser re-formados por las Escrituras continuamente (ver Hch. 17:11, Ro. 12:2), en vez de vivir según tradiciones que no han sido examinadas.
