Peter isn't sure he likes Chelsea. She not only claims she's a ghost, but she boasts she's good at football too! Even so, Peter feels he has to save her when she runs into the deserted tower block. With only minutes to go before the building is blown up, will they both get out in time? Tower Block Blowdown is one of thirteen books that make up Independent Reading Level B, for children in Year 4/Primary 5. This phase of Cambridge Reading aims to extend children's reading tastes and understanding of language features, and motivate them to enjoy reading. Tower Block Blowdown provides children with a good introduction to the short story form and will help to improve their independence as readers. The book has black and white illustrations, helping to make the book accessible and attractive to its target readership.
