The Classic Baptist Heritage of Personal Truth: The Truth as It is in Jesus Frank Louis Mauldin

This is the story of the classic Baptist passion for personal truth, a story full of significance for understanding the identity and the integrity of Baptists, both past and present, and more importantly, for encountering and knowing the personal truth itself.

Mauldin documents and demonstrates that authentic Baptists have always majored on experiential religion informed by "the Hold Word of God" and quickened by God's Spirit. The author says it all when he affirms that "Baptists... defend the thesis that truth is someone real, not something true." One who reads this book may discover what a Baptist is.
