She longs to make a difference - but as she searches for her estranged grandfather and secretly tends to orphans and widows in the city's slum, the unexpected occurs. Claudia falls in love. Cameron Montbatten is intrigued by the free-spirited Lady Claudia. As his attraction grows, he discovers he's in a bit of a bind. In effort to pacify Aurora, his childhood friend, he pledged to marry her, should she be unable to find a husband. Now it appears as though Aurora planned all along to snag him into matrimony. A gentleman's kiss has won a lady's heart... but will perceptions and hasty promises ruin their chances for love?
