The Joy of Cancer Anup Kumar

When Anup Kumar discovered he had cancer it had already advanced to the last stages. He was told he had only four months to live. This book is the outcome of the emotional and physical anguish that followed, but much more, it is about the power of the human mind and body to turn a death sentence around. It is said that the only real experts on cancer are cancer patients themselves. They'll tell you things the doctors won't. for instance, how do you accept the presence of cancer in your life? How do you conquer fear? What exactly are the side effects of chemotherapy? What precautions should you take?
